

Begonia emeiensis DJHC98479	£5.20	Collected by Dan Hinkley on Mt.Emei in Sichuan province. Creeping rhizome with rather rounded, fleshy green leaves with toothed margins. Clusters of pink flowers during August & September. On the borderlines of hardiness with a good mulch in a woodland soil in part shade. (8-9) 25cm.
Begonia grandis evansiana alba	£6.75	Clusters of scented, SOFT WHITE flowers; summer. Amazingly hardy tuberous species with thick fleshy stems & pale olive green leaves flushed pink beneath. Well drained soil in dappled shade. 45x30cm.
Begonia grandis evansiana 'Claret Jug'	£4.50	More or less reliably hardy species from the Himalayas, with sprays of rich-pink flowers with a red flush on red flushed stems. Large, deeply veined pale-green leaves on fleshy stems. Humus rich, well drained soil in sun or part shade. (6-9) 45cm.
Begonia grandis evansiana 'Simsii'	£4.50	Surprising;y hardy Begonis with fleshy stems & pale green leaves. Clusters of softest blush-pink flowers in late summer followed by bulbils which drop to the soil. Best in a sheltered woodland spot in part shade. (8-10) 60cm.
Begonia 'Wavy Green'	£5.20	Wild collected species in need of a name. Creeping rhizome with elliptic, pointed yellow-green leaves with wavy margins, held on red stalks. Clusters of simple white flowers during late summer & autumn. Best in a humus rich, well drained soil in part or full shade. Hardiness unknown? (8-10) 25cm.
Begonia luxurians	£5.95	2.00 Stunning foliage plant needing a cold greenhouse in the winter, Thick stems with huge, finely dissected, radiating, luxuriant green leaves for that tropical look. Clusters of small white flowers during autumn. excellent for a pot on the patio.
Bergenia 'Abendglut'	£7.60	(syn.Evening Glow') VIVID ROSE-RED flowers; April-May. Large, leathery evergreen leaves turn an attractive plum-red in winter. Good ground cover. Any reasonable soil; any aspect. 30cms. Flowers: April-May.
Bergenia 'Baby Doll'	£5.80	Dwarfer form with panicles of PINK flowers. Good evergreen ground cover for sun or shade. Effective in groups. 30x30cms. Flowers: April-May
Bergenia 'Bach'	£6.85	One of the most beautiful white forms with erect spikes of palest icing sugar-pink flowers, quickly ageing white, held in persistent red calyces on red stems; March & April. Neat small to medium leaves remaining green all winter. Slow but worth the effort. Unaccountably rare. Any soil in sun or shade. (3-5) 25cm.
Bergenia 'Bartok'	£5.20	Striking old Eric Smith hybrid with erectly held, medium sized glossy green leaves with striking red reverses. In winter the leaves are burgundy red look a little crumpled. whorls of heads of narrowly tubular deep red-pink flowers through late winter & spring. Best in a woodland soil with some shade. 40cm.
Bergenia 'Bressingham Salmon'	£4.00	Short spikes of rich salmon-pink flowers April-May. Bold, glossy leaves all year. Good ground cover. Suitable for most situations including shade. 25cms.
Bergenia 'Bressingham White' (AGM)	£4.50	A good white form the large, pure white flowers freely produced from mid to late spring. Robust, rich green leaves. Clump forming perennial for and reasonably drained soil in sun or shade.
Bergenia 'Claire Maxine' (AGM)	£4.60
Bergenia cordifolia	£3.75	Bold ground covering evergreen, with large leathery leaves taking on burgundy-red colouration in winter. Heads of pale rose-pink flowers on red stems; late winter & early spring. Moist well drained soil in sun or shade. 20x45cm.
Bergenia cordifolia 'Jelle'	£4.50	Short, compact form with smaller, oval green leaves, taking on red tinges in winter. Clusters of white flowers on green stems during mild spells in winter & spring. Good ground cover even for dry shade. (1-4) 15cm.

Bergenia cordifolia 'Lunar Glow'	£6.45	Small leaved variety which in spring is very distinct with it's pale yellow new growth, becoming more chartreuse by summer. Reddish stems with small bell-shaped vibrant pink-purple bells in spring. Good ground cover for sun or shade. (2-4) 15cm.
Bergenia cordifolia 'Purpurea' (AGM)	£4.20	Sprays of pink flowers April-May. Free flowering. Large, purplish, fleshy, evergreen leaves. Any reasonable soil in sun or shade.
Bergenia cordifolia 'Vinterglod'	£4.25	syn.Winterglow. Compact variety with smaller, rounded, dark-green leaves, taking on burgundy red tints in winter. Stout stems with bell-shaped, dark pink-red flowers in late winter & spring. Good ground cover for any soil, even poor in sun or shade.(1-4)30cm
Bergenia 'David'	£4.50	Rather distinct form with oval, rich olive-green leaves held erectly. They turn rich burgundy & red throughout autumn & winter. Nodding heads of bell-shaped deep pink flowers from late winter through spring. Any soil & site even in dry shade. (2-5) 40cm.
Bergenia 'Doppelganger'	£4.80	Rare, old German form from the National Collection. Dark pink, semi double nodding flowers with broad, overlapping petals. The narrowly oval leaves take of burgundy red hues in the winter. Any soil in sun or shade. (2-4) 30cm.
Bergenia 'Eden's Magic Giant'	£4.50	A new hybrid, with possibly the largest leaves of any hybrid. They are ruffled & flushed purple all year. Large heads of rose-pink flowers in early spring. Any reasonable soil in sun or shade. (2-5) 30cm.
Bergenia 'Eroica' (AGM)	£4.35	Large, shining, thick-green leaves maturing dark-green & finally dark-copper in autumn & winter. Large deep cerise-purple flowers with a red eye on stout burgundy stems. Good ground cover for sun or shade in any reasonable soil. (2-4) 30cm.
Bergenia 'Godfrey Owen'	£5.80	Quite a strong growing Bergenia, much like a smaller leaved purpurascens. The winter colour in a strange reddish-brown. Good sized purple-pink flowers well above the leaves during early to mid spring. Good even in dry shade. but adaptable. (2-4) 30cm.
Bergenia 'Goldfisch'	£5.00	German hybrid with good sized glossy green leaves turning orange then finally red in winter. Rich reddish-pink flowers on red flushed stems during winter & spring. Good ground cover for sun or shade. (1-4) 20cm.
Bergenia 'Morgenrote' (AGM)	£4.50	Morning Red'. Large rosettes of rounded, leathery dark-green leaves taking on burgundy red autumnal colours. Clusters of pink flowers on red stems. One of the few varieties which repeat. Retentive soil in sun or shade. (3-5)
Bergenia 'Opal'	£4.75	Small, old form, slow of growth now with small, densely packed heads of small lilac flowers on bright red stalks;- mid spring. the leathery, oval are just tinted red in winter. Best in dappled shade & not too dry a spot. (3-4) 20cm.
Bergenia 'Overture'	£4.50	Large leaved hybrid with glossy, dark-green leaves in summer turning a wonderful rich burgundy-red in winter. Heads of large glowing cerise flowers with a red eye in early spring. Good ground cover for any soi, in sun or shade. (2-4) 30cm.
Bergenia 'Pink Ice'	£7.50	Selected at Blackthorn nursery this slow growing emeiensis hybrid has oval, glossy green leaves, turning red at the edges in winter. Stout stems with heads of clear pink flowers during late winter & early spring. Unfortunately not as hardy as most so for very warm gardens only. 91-30 30cm.

Bergenia 'Pinneberg'	£4.80	Old German hybrid, a good selection of cordifolia. Oval, medium sized, smooth green leaves turn a rich reddish-crimson in autumn & winter. Tall stems, well clear of the leaves, carry nodding rich crimson-pink. bell-shaped flowers from red calyces, during late winter & spring. Good ground cover even for dry shade. (2-5)
Bergenia purpurascens (AGM)	£4.20	syn.B.beesiana. Clump forming perennial, with oval, deep-green leaves, purple-red beneath, turning beetroot-red in winter. Nodding, pendent, deep pink-red flowers on rusty brown stems in late winter. Retentive soil in sun or shade. (2-4) 45cm.
Bergenia purpurascens delavayi (AGM)	£5.65	An old favourite, now rarely seen with good sized leathery leaves turning rich wine red in autumn & winter. Good sized heads of rich pink flowers in winter & spring. Evergreen ground cover for any soil in sun or shade. (4-5) 45cm.
Bergenia 'Purpurglocken'	£4.70	cordifolia hybrid with rounded, smooth green leaves turning rich reddish-purple in winter. Stout red stems topped by large, bell-shaped rich reddish-purple flowers in spring. Any reasonable soil in sun or shade. (2-4) 40cm.
Bergenia 'Red Rush'	£4.50	Large leaved hybrid with big oval leaves just having the finest red rim. The whole leaf turns red maroon in autumn. Tall stems with pinkish-red flowers on red stems during late winter through spring. Any soil even in dry shade. (1-40) 45cm.
Bergenia 'Rietheim'	£4.60	Originating from the Grafen von Zeppelin nursery in Germany, this has very large, rounded leaves, turning rich burgundy in winter. Very large, slightly nodding, packed heads of narrowly trumpet shaped warm-pink flowers in late winter, through spring. Easy in any reasonable soil in sun or shade. (2-4) 30cm.
Bergenia 'Rosi Ruffles'	£4.25	Compact sport from 'Rosi Klose' with rounded, glossy leaves with distinct large teeth. Turns purple-red in winter. Red flushed stems with nodding, rosy-pink flowers all winter. Any reasonable soil in sun or shade. (4-5)30cm.
Bergenia 'Rotblum'	£4.50	Good ground covering evergreen for difficult spots with large, rounded glossy deep-green leaves with a burnished burgundy picotte. Sprays of rich cerise-pink bell-shaped flowers on red stems in late winter & early spring. (2-4) 30cm.
Bergenia 'Sakura' (Butterfly Series)	£5.20	Translates as 'Cherry Blossom'. Rosettes of good sized, olive-green leaves, turning purple-black in winter. Huge heads of individually large, semi-double, rich-pink flowers, held well above the leaves during late winter & spring. A real superstar. Any reasonable soil in sun or shade. (2-5) 40cm.
Bergenia stracheyi	£4.25	Excellent ground cover for dry shade with oval, dark green leaves with very fine teeth & a hairy margin, taking on reddish tints in autumn. Clusters of small, milky white flowers finishing with a pink tinge from green calyces. (2-4) 20cm.
Bergenia 'Walter Kienli'	£4.75	cordifolia type with more erectly held, leathery green leaves with the rim turning rich red in winter. Very late flowering with lilac-pink flowers held on red flushed stems in late spring. Good ground cover even for dry shade. (3-4) 40cm.
Bergenia 'Wintermarchen' (AGM)	£4.20	(Winter Fairy Tale) flowers: Heads of DARK ROSE-RED; April-May. Evergreen clump-former with deep green, shiny leaves red-purple beneath; red tinged in winter. Humus-rich, moist yet well drained soil in sun or part shade. 40x45cms+.

Berkheya cirsiifolia	£5.20	Viciously spiny thistle like plant from the Drakensberg's proving reliably hardy. Very large, white daisy like flowers with a burgundy ring around the gold eye, from July to September. Needs a light, free draining soil in a sunny, sheltered spot. (6-8) 60cm.
Berkheya radula	£5.20	Surprisingly hardy, South African thistle, less spiny than some. Basal rosettes of large, round lobed & toothed leaves. Winged stems carry good sized soft lemon-yellow flowers with a large central cone & narrow, gappy ray petals. Flowers midsummer. Gritty, free draining soil in a sunny, sheltered spot. (6-8) 70cm.
Beschorneria albiflora	£24.50	Incredibly rare species from Cerro Azul, Oaxaca, Mexico eventually forming 2mtr trunks with rosettes of broad, leathery, smooth green leaves. Hige spikes of narrowly trumpet shaped soft cream-green flowers with a coral flush, on red stems. Cold hardy at least.
Bessera elegans	£4.20	Unusual bulbous Allium relative from Mexico, with nodding, slightly Aquilegia-like scarlet flowers, veined green, ivory within with scarlet veining in early summer. Narrow, long grass-like leaves. Untried for hardiness, but may require winter protection. (6-7) 90cm.
Bidens aurea -white flowered	£4.50	Unusual colour break for this usually yellow species. Very tall, willowy stems topped by heads of small creamy-white daisies with a rusty gold eye, during late summer, through autumn. Finely cut, sparse leaves. Retentive soil in a sunny sheltered spot. (8-10)
Bletilla striata	£4.50	Clusters of MAGENTA flowers; May & June. Pleated, elliptic, lance-shaped leaves. One of the easiest to grow orchids on the borderlines of hardiness.Humus rich soil in part shade.
Bletilla striata 'Variegata'	£5.20	This selected form the Japanese Ground Orchid has erect stems with alternate, elliptic, pleated leaves, variegated creamy-gold. Spikes of exotic, rich magenta-pink flowers from mid to late summer. Best in a cool, moist, humus rich, well drained soil in part
Boehmeria sieboldiana	£4.80	Tall, strong growing nettle relative from China & Korea, ideal for the back of the border. Tidy, upright clumps of handsome, deeply veined leaves. Arching sprays of dangling tan flowers from mid to late summer. Best in a moist soil with some shade. (7-9) 150cm.
Boltonia asteroides latisquama 'Snowbank'	£4.50	Tall, stiffly erect, back of the border daisy with clouds of starry white daisies in profusion during late summer & autumn. Narrow grey-green leaves. Does not need staking. Retentive, well drained soil in sun or part shade. (7-10) 150cm.
Bomarea costaricensis	£7.80	This twining climber has proved to be hardy and free flowering in mild gardens. Heads of orange-red tubular flowers during mid to late summer followed by, bunches of fruit that split open to reveal glistening scarlet seeds, Retentive, well drained soil in a sheltered spot or cold greenhouse. (7-8) Ht to 2mtrs.
Boykinia major	£4.20	Modest plant that can flower in the most difficult situations. Clumps of rounded scalloped leaves. Branching stems have clusters of yellow eyed creamy-white flowers in summer. Ordinary well drained soil in sun or shade. 60x60cm.
Brodiaea californica 'Babylon'	£4.20	Bulbous perennial from the pacific Coast of the USA. Open, upward facing, starry heads of goblet shaped rich purple-pink flowers, white at the centre, striped red in bud ; - June & July. The grassy leaves often wither at flowering. Best in a light, free draining
Brunnera macrophylla (AGM)	£4.20	Sprays of bright blue forget-me-not' like flowers April-May followed by a clump of large, robust leaves giving excellent ground cover in moisture-retentive soil in shade. 45x45cms.
Brunnera macrophylla 'Hadspen Cream' (AGM)	£7.50	Vivid blue forget-me-not' flowers over a carpet of large leaves broadly bordered cream. Excellent ground cover for cool shaded spot & retentive soil. 45cms (4-5)

Brunnera macrophylla 'Henry's Eyes'	£4.80	Mound forming almost evergreen perennial with rosettes of hairy, light green, heart-shaped leaves. Sprays of small sky-blue flowers with each petal delicately edged in white, during April & May. Best in a humus rich, not too dry soil in part or full shade. (4-5) 40cm.
Brunnera macrophylla 'Jack Frost' (AGM)	£6.85	Slow growing woodlander, with large, heart shaped green leaves covered in a silver white speckling, leaving just a dark green edge. Sprays of small, forget me not intense blue flowers in spring. Humus rich, woodland soil in part or full shade. (3-5) 40cm.
Brunnera macrophylla 'Jennifer'	£4.80	Excellent ground cover for shade with mats of pointed, heart-shaped pale-green leaves. Airy sprays of tiny white flowers with the edge of each petal etched in pale-blue. They flower March to May. Best in a retentive, well drained soil in part or full shade. (3-5)
Brunnera macrophylla 'Sea Heart'	£4.80	Striking woodlander with large, heart shaped leaves, almost entirely silver, with a fine green rim. Sprays of two-tone, forget-me-not like pink & blue tiny lowers from mid to late spring. More or less evergreen in retentive soil, needing some shade. (4-5) 40cm.
Brunnera sibirica	£4.50	Vigorous Russian species, even for dry shade. Spreading rhizomes with heart shaped leaves. Heads of small, piercing blue flowers in spring. Has medicinal uses in it's homeland. Any reasonable soil in sun or shade. (4-5) 45cm.
Buglossoides purpureocaerulea	£4.50	(syn.Lithospermum) Arching stems tipped by panicles of deep violet flowers which quickly fade gentian blue. Flowers late spring & early summer. Spreading ground cover for fertile well drained soil in light shade. 45x60cm.
Bulbinella angustifolia	£5.20	Also known as the Maori Onion. Bulbous perennial with erect stems carrying closely packed, narrow spikes of golden-yellow flowers throughout early summer. Channelled, olive-bronze narrow leaves in basal rosettes. Very sheltered spot or cold greenhouse.
Bulbinella latifolia	£4.80	Big, robust, South African species, with with pyramidal spikes of small, starry golden, orange flushed flowers in spring. basal rosettes of broad, succulent, fleshy, Kniphofia-like leaves. Neutral to acid soil in sun, with winter protection. (2-4) 120cm
Bulbinella nutans	£4.70	Robust clumps of long, grassy, reed like leaves. Pyramidal spikes of small, starry creammy-yellow flowers in spring. Not really hardy but a good feature for a pot. S.Africa. Neutral to acid soil in sun or part shade. (2-4) 90cm.